WELCOME MESSAGE

Organizing Chairman
Prof V K Shukla

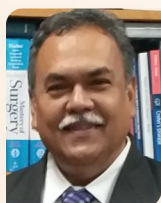

I am delighted to invite you in the "3rd Asian Wound Care Association Conference & 23rd Annual Conference of Indian Society of Wound Management (Virtual)" being organised during 26 to 28 November, 2021.

This year the theme of the conference is "Microbes and Wound Healing". I expect that a large number of participants across the Asia besides scholars from various parts of the country are going to participate in the conference.

I believe that the event will provide a platform to the scholars to interact with the experts of the field not only to discuss recent advancements in their field of study but also to share their views for the futuristic scope of research in the field. I hope that online orations, lectures, deliberations and workshop on various aspects of wound care & management will give an opportunity to the participants to showcase their scientific work besides acquainting others about the new techniques of wound healing. I hope that the conference will prove to be a productive endeavour.

I urge to all the members of the Asian Countries to encourage the scholars, doctors and nurses of the institutes in their countries to participate in this prestigious event.

I congratulate everyone associated with the event and extend my best wishes for its grand success.
